

KUBASIAK, FYLSTRA, THORPE & ROTUNNO, P.C.

is pleased to announce that Douglass G. Hewitt and David S. Schaffer have joined the firm as partners.

Mr. Hewitt concentrates his practice in the representation of businesses, including health care providers and other employers, in commercial and employment litigation. He has extensive trial experience in employment, consumer fraud, unfair trade practices, insurance, Uniform Commercial Code, and other business disputes.

Mr. Schaffer concentrates his practice in corporate and transactional law, including mergers, acquisitions, restructurings and securities transactions including public offerings and private placements of both debt and equity. He has been recognized by his peers as an Illinois "Leading Lawyer" and "Super Lawyer."

With experienced attorneys and extensive resources to address virtually any type of business or liability matter, the firm is able to integrate the skills, knowledge and experience of our legal team to achieve creative solutions with superior results.

The firm welcomes its new partners